

Legalization of documents

All documents issued in Belgium which should be used in Thailand, have to be legalized by the Royal Thai Embassy.

Procedure :

1. Let the documents legalized first at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (27, rue des Petits Carmes, 1000 Bruxelles)
2. Come to the Royal Thai Embassy with these documents (Originals + one copy of each page)

Cost : 15 € per stamp

Waiting time : 1 to 2 opening day(s) (can also be shipped with an already stamped envelope + address)

Request for a certificate of nationality or affidavit of law

These documents are mostly asked by the city hall (for example, a wedding)

Documents to bring for each certificate:

1. A copy of the Thai identity card
2. A copy of the Thai passport

Attention: If another person comes to the Embassy to fulfill the administrative formalities, this person needs a power of attorney in Thai as well as one copy of his or her ID-card.

Cost : 15 € per stamp

Waiting time : 1 to 2 opening day(s) (can also be shipped with an already stamped envelope + address)

Request for a certificate of good conduct

The Royal Thai Embassy cannot issue this document. Besides, it can be gotten in Thailand with a letter of attorney.

Documents to bring :

1. 3 identity size photos in color
2. 3 copies of the thai identity card
3. 3 copies of the thai passport

Procedure :

1. Bring the above-mentioned documents
2. Take the fingerprints
3. Write a letter of attorney

Cost : 15 €
